

2022 Supplemental Budget Agency Summary

Source Document: <https://lawfilesexternal.wa.gov/biennium/2021-22/Pdf/Bills/Senate%20Passed%20Legislature/5693-S.PL.pdf?q=20220311101341>

CAPAA Funding p. 40

FOR THE COMMISSION ON ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN AFFAIRS
General Fund—State Appropriation (FY 2022). . . . . $554,000
General Fund—State Appropriation (FY 2023). . . . . $857,000
TOTAL APPROPRIATION. . . . . $1,411,000

OSPI Education Disparity Study - p. 29

Funds are provided solely for the Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs to collaborate with the Office of Equity to engage contractors to conduct an analysis of the education opportunity gap for Asian American students, develop recommendations, and identify performance measures to monitor yearly progress.

- $40,000 for 2022
- $160,000 for 2023

Comprehensive equity review of state capital grant programs - p. 83

The Department of Revenue must collaborate with the Washington State Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs and give one representative for the equity review of state capital grant programs.

- $225,000 for 2022
- $175,000 for 2023

Washington state creative economy work group - p. 93

The Department of revenue is charged with improving Washington State’s creative economy. This includes but is not limited to film, television, theatre, visual arts, and video game development. The department will contract with a nonprofit organization with demonstrated expertise in the creative arts and strategic planning to establish a Washington state creative economy work group. There will be one representative selected by the Washington State Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs to represent the entity on the work group.

- $151,000 for 2022
- $532,000 for 2023

Equity impact statement for legislative proposals, and content and format requirements for the equity impact statement - p.154-155

By July 1, 2022, the Office of Financial Management must submit a report to the Governor, appropriate committees of the legislature, and commissions (CAPAA, CHA, CAA) that details recommendations on: 1) the procedure for providing an equity impact statement for legislative proposals; 2) the format and content requirements for the equity impact statement; 3) a plan, including information technology additions or revisions, necessary to provide equity impact statements.

- $150,000 for 2022

For the Recreation and Conservation Office to conduct a comprehensive equity review of state grant programs - p. 530

The Recreation and Conservation Office must collaborate with the Washington State Commission on Asian Pacific American affairs to conduct a comprehensive equity review of state grant programs.

- $375,000 for 2022

Work group to examine how automated decision-making systems can best be reviewed before adoption - p. 208-209 (CAPAA implied but not explicitly mentioned)

Chief information officer who must convene a work group to examine how automated decision-making systems can best be reviewed before adoption and while in operation and be periodically audited to ensure that such systems are fair, transparent, accountable and do not improperly advantage or disadvantage Washington residents.

- $12,000 for 2022

“At least five representatives from advocacy organizations that represent communities that are disproportionately vulnerable to being harmed by algorithmic bias, including but not limited to, African American, Hispanic American, Native American, and Asian American communities, religious minorities, people with disabilities, and other vulnerable communities.”